

Mrs. White's kindergarten class has been studying Texas history. They were able to go on a field trip to the Armstrong County Museum. According to Mrs. White, the students were able to explore Cowboy and Indian artifacts from some very sweet ladies. The kids also enjoyed some good ol' stick-horse barrel racing. The students learned all about respect and responsibility.

