

Mrs. White's kindergarten class recently visited Wildcat Bluff in Amarillo on a WOWW trip. The students went on a long hike and learned many things about the beautiful world they live in. While learning about the environment, the students portrayed passion and determination as they listened intently to their guide. They also learned more about resourcefulness on their excursion.

