

Mrs. Zongker's sophomore English II class took time out of their normal routine to watch the funeral service for President George H.W. Bush. The funeral service was streamed via CBS news onto the Promethean Board. Students were taught facts about the other Presidents in attendance at the State Funeral along with other dignitaries. They were very interested in the entire two days of events.

